New Nativity School Library Given Two Book Donations

Nativity Catholic school, Torrance, was the recipient recently of two donations to the new library. Mrs. Charles S. Allen, of the local parish, presented a set of "The Book of Knowledge," and Mr. Anthony Fazio, divisional sales manager of The Grolier Society, donated a seven-volume set of "Lands and Peoples." Receiving the books in the name of the school was Mrs. Frank Kristufek, president of Nativity Mothers Club.

Presentation took place at the regular meeting of the club on Tuesday, March 10, in the Parish Hall. In making the presentation, Mr. Fazio offered an additional set of "The Book of Knowledge" to one of the women present. Mrs. Donald Bryant, immediate past president of the Mothers Club, was the lucky lady.

Also featured as a highlight of the meeting was the reading of original poems by six students, selected as winners in the recent contest sponsored annually by the Catholic Daughters of America. Named as winners in Division I were Donna Franklin, Grade 6; Marie Mara and Connie Garcia, Grade 5. In Division II, Shirli Zimprich and Mary Frances Buffalo, Grade 8, and Colleen O'Hara, Grade 7, were listed as winners in the order named. The works of these girls will now be entered in

State OES Officials Pay Visit

Tuesday evening the 80th District of Eastern Star met at the Redondo Masonic Temple for the official visit of the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, Annie Mills and Henry Wentz.

The Chapter room was filled to overflowing of members from the seven Chapters that compose the 80th District, namely Carnation Chapter, Redondo, Lomita Chapter, Point Firmin Chapter, San Pedro; Playa Linda, Hermosa Beach; San Pedro Chapter, San Pedro; Torrance and Wilmington.

Each chapter was given a special part of the program for the evening as follows: San Pedro Harbor, Special Escort of the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron; Point Firmin, Opening; Wilmington, Escort; Carnation, Regular Business; Playa Linda, Program; Torrance, Good of the Order; Lomita, Closing.

Logan Cotton, Past Grand Patron of the State of California and a Past Patron of Playa Linda Chapter, Hermosa Beach gave the address of welcome to the Grand Officers.

Under escort the following were presented: Mary Isabel Warmer, Grace Hoffman, Past Grand Patrons of California; Anna Blackstone, Past Grand Matron of Oklahoma; Carson Hubbard and Logan Cotton, Past Grand Patrons; twenty-two present Grand Officers, one Past Grand Treasurer, the Grand trailers, husband and wife of the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, Roy Mills and Hazel Wentz, two Grand Representatives, fourteen worthy matrons and worthy patrons and many past matrons and past patrons of the various chapters.

Delightful songs were dedicated to the Grand Officers by Norma Mince.

During the Good of the Order the Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron gave most inspiring speeches.

The Officers formed an aisle for the Grand Officers to march through to the dining room which was beautifully decorated with roses. Those serving in the dining room from Torrance Chapter were Gladys Mothersell, Edna Babcock and Vivian Cook.

The entire Official Visit was in charge of Florence Viellenave, Deputy Grand Matron of the 80th District.

BEST BUYS FOR THE WEEK

In Torrance Markets

THE EASTER PARADE OF PLENTIFUL FOODS will delight the homemaker, and offers a thrifty answer to the "what-shall-we-have for EASTER?" query. PORK, considered one of the best sources of thiamine available, will be plentiful. A wide choice of fine quality fresh and cured cuts to feature on your Easter bill of fare. One serving of loin furnishes about 60 per cent of the thiamine and one serving of ham furnishes 40 per cent of the thiamine recommended each day. LOIN ROASTS and tender, succulent HAMS will be featured in many markets, with no tug on one's purse strings. LAMB, also, is among the plentiful meats and will be "featured" in many markets; an excellent source of niacin . . . one serving (3 1/2 oz.) supplies almost 40 per cent of the daily recommended intake. Watch for "specials" on BEEF RIB ROASTS in some markets. POULTRY . . . turkeys (all sizes), and broiler-fryers will be in ample supply; excellent buys. High in protein, low in fat, low in calories. EGGS . . . plenty to meet the Easter demand; even though you hard-cook your dyed eggs, eat them within a day or so.

ON THE PRODUCE STANDS you will find a colorful array of fruits and vegetables. On the Plentiful list are: ASPARAGUS . . . tender, delicious. "Springtime treat" . . . Specified: AVOCADOS, ARTICHOKE . . . good quality; good buy. CABBAGE, CARROTS, LETTUCE, both leafy and head. POTATOES, ROMAINE, SQUASH, YAMS . . . for that "ham."

TOMATOES will be a good buy. "Specialed" in many markets: APPLES, Delicious and Wine-sap. GRAPEFRUIT, ORANGES, navel. PEARS, Anjou. FRESH PINEAPPLE, from Hawaii. RHUBARB, Strawberry hot-house and field-grown.

Easter Vacation

Miss Judy Wolf, student at UC, Santa Barbara, attended the Fireside meetings of the Chi Omega sorority at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena last Saturday and Sunday. She is now in Torrance spending the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf.

80th Birthday

Celebrating his 80th birthday anniversary, Frank M. Salisbury recently dined with friends at the Plush Horse Restaurant. He was accompanied to the party by Mrs. Eva Schatter.

Dinner Guests

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Altermatt, 1323 Hickory Ave. were Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Brenon of Hollywood.

the state contest, where they may have an opportunity of going into the national finals. The Pastor, Father Joseph McArdle, addressed the mothers on their part as a group in the function of the parish school.

Coffee and tea were served by the third grade mothers under the chairmanship of Mrs. Richard Reamer.

Easter Guests

Easter dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Altermatt will be Mrs. Altermatt's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Utley and son, Allen of Long Beach.

Fiesta at Montgomery April 18-19

Rev. Michael J. McNulty, principal of Bishop Montgomery High School and chairman James Ebben and Mrs. Elles Cook, have announced that arrangements have been completed for the first annual Fiesta to be held on the school grounds April 18 and 19.

On Sunday, April 19, a catered ham dinner will be served. Dining room chairmen are Mmes. Howard M. Schott and Harry E. Payne of Torrance and Richard Cahill of Gardena. They will be assisted by students of the school.

Ralph J. Brady of Palos Verdes and Mrs. Donald Davis, Torrance, have been busy arranging locations for the numerous booths.

Proceeds from this event are to be used for the library, athletic department and administrative purposes.

PIESTA COMING UP . . . Bishop Montgomery High school will be the setting of a gala annual fiesta on April 18-19. A ham dinner for the public will be served on Sunday. Talking over plans for the fiesta are from left, Rev. Michael McNulty, seated, Mrs. Elles Cook, co-chairman, James Ebben, co-chairman and Mrs. Harry E. Payne, dinner chairman. Proceeds will be used to purchase school equipment.

Walteria

Novel decorations of dolls dressed in costumes of many lands and flags from around the world set the scene for the general meeting of the Walteria PTA on March 12. The theme of the program was "Far Away Places" with students who have participated in the American Field Service program as exchange students speaking. Rosanne Hathaway, a resident of Torrance who spent a year as a student in Greece, and Per Svanevik of Norway who is at present attending North High School, were the speakers.

A double slate of nominees were on the ballot for the election of officers. Those elected were: President, Jim Birmingham; vice-president, Mrs. Michael Mallia; second vice-president, Don Mullaney; third vice-president, Mrs. Jeff Ronan; recording secretary, Mrs. Elmer Doage; financial secretary, Mrs. Robert Spangler; treasurer, Mrs. Henry Fink, Jr.; auditor, Mrs. Glen Hardcastle; historian, Mrs. Willard Pattison. The next general meeting will be held on April 9. The school band will be participating in this program titled "Music, Music, Music."
